

MUIR LIBRARY – WINNEBAGO

Join us for engaging discussions based on the idea of pushing the limits of transformation and tradition. Programs include short videos produced by the National Science Foundation and insight from bestselling authors, William Kamkwamba and Emily St. John Mandel.

Real People. Real Stories. Real Science.

KNOWLEDGE

CONNECTION

SURVIVAL

NATURE

Attend one, some, or all of the events in this series.

Tuesday, October 3 @ 7pm – Transformation

Thursday, November 2 @ 7pm – Tradition

This program series is led by Heidi Schutt, Library Director at Muir Library and Courtney Ireland, Technical Rep for CTE Global, Inc.

Free and open to the public. No registration required. Each program lasts one hour.

*Suggested readings by the authors are available at Muir Library in several different formats.

Pushing the Limits is a reading, viewing and discussion program for adults in communities served by rural libraries, made possible by a grant from the National Science Foundation

© 2012
Dawson Media
Group, LLC

Visit our website <http://winnebago.tdslib.org> or call Muir Library for more info 893-3196.